

Royal Hobart Hospital 200th Anniversary

Nursing Past, Present and Future: Where we've been and where we're going!

Join us to hear about how the practice of nursing and midwifery has changed over the last 200 years and how it will change into the future.

Executive Director of Nursing and Midwifery Associate Professor Coral Paton

Coral started her nursing career as an enrolled nurse at the now closed Royal Derwent Hospital. She went on to become a registered psychiatric and general nurse and then completed several tertiary programs at degree, post-graduate degree and master's level.

She is a member of the Australian College of Nursing, a Fellow of the Australian College of Mental Health Nurses and has a clinical conjoint with the University of Tasmania's School of Nursing. She has been the Executive Director of Nursing and Midwifery for Southern Tasmania since 2015.
